Lucia Fischer (*1991)
Filipino artist, based in Basel

Lucia Fischer is an artist whose diverse life experiences form the foundation of her creative work. Having lived across the Middle East, Southeast Asia, Europe, and North America, she draws inspiration from vibrant jungles, shifting desert dunes, and the interplay of light and texture found in nature. Settling in Basel, Switzerland, in 2021, Fischer reflects her global journey through art that explores cultural landscapes and the female form. Despite an early detour into cinematography and screenwriting, Fischer's passion for art prevailed. After briefly studying Fine Arts at UP Diliman, she chose an independent path, debuting with her solo exhibition "Asexual Adoration" in 2016. Her work gained acclaim at the Manila Art Fair in 2020 and 2021, closing a chapter of her career in the Philippines.
